

$30,000 JEWEL THEFT IS FAKE, STEGE DECLARES

Arrest Brother Of Chorus Girl's Husband

CAGO, June 25.—(AP)—The theft of $30,000 in jewels from the Lind Terry musical comedy star, was branded as "bogus" today by Deputy Police Commissioner John Stege, while Morris Bogowski, Miss Terry's newly acquired brother-in-law, was held in jail as a suspect.

Denying that he had been in financial difficulties, he was wretchedly scolding police suggestions that the theft was "framed," Benjamin Bogowski, Miss Terry's husband of six weeks, sought vainly to obtain his brother's release. Explaining the difference in names, he explained that his family had changed his name when he was three years old but that his brother had kept the family name.

Miss Terry said her husband, a reputedly wealthy real estate man, was entering their apartment in the fashionable Lincoln park district early yesterday morning when two men accosted them and seized the actress' jewels, forcing the couple into the lobby at the point of pistols.

Recalling that Bogowski had a brother with a long criminal record, detectives arrested the latter and invited Bogowski and Miss Terry to headquarters to try to identify him. Neither could say that Bogowski was the robber.

Miss Terry and her husband, a Stege read off Bogowski's record, showing that he had been sentenced to prison for robbery and forgery and convicted of murder but later freed.

"Why didn't you tell me your brother was a murderer?" detectives quoted her as scolding to Bogowski.

Declaring that he was interested only in preventing fraud on some insurance company, Deputy Stege said he understood Bogowski had recently gone to California to borrow money on his apartment buildings. He also quoted Miss Terry as saying that her jewels were worth only $11,000, though insured for $30,000.

Denying any financial trouble, Bogowski said he was the head of a $5,000,000 hotel company and that his brother was head of a large construction company. He denied that his wife had set the value of the jewels at $11,000, saying that the insurance company had had them appraised by a large Chicago jeweler.

"I have been told of the danger from her desire to wear expensive jewelry and she applied for insurance on them at my suggestion," he said.

AMERICANS PRESENT DETAILS OF PARIS REPARATIONS MEET

All Four Representatives of United States at Capital Meeting

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—Intimate details of the negotiations leading up to the German reparations agreement were given to President Hoover today by the four unofficial American representatives who had a large hand in its consummation.

The report was made to the chief executive around the luncheon table at the White House. All of the "big four" delegations—Owen D. Young, J. P. Morgan, Thomas W. Lamont and Nelson Perkins attended as did Secretary Stimson, Under Secretary Clegg and Assistant Secretary Castle, of the state department, and Secretary Mellon and Under Secretary Mills of the treasury.

After the luncheon the American financiers, who were selected for their task by the allied governments with the approval of the then president, Calvin Coolidge, said they merely had made a verbal report of the general situation of the reparations revision as it was formulated during the sessions of the committee of experts in Paris. They added general matters beyond the scope of the committee's work also were discussed.

Administration officials added little to this statement, but it was understood the general world financial situation entered into the conversations, with special attention upon the probable effect of the agreement on world financial and trade conditions.

MADAME ASSOLANT WILL FLY WITH HUBBY TO PARIS

Le Bourget, France, June 25.—(AP)—Madame Jean Assolant, the former Pauline Parker, New York actress, will make her entry into the French capital in the same way as her husband, by air. The successful trans-Atlantic flier will pilot his wife from Havre to Le Bourget in his own airplane.

Assolant came to the flying field tonight to put the finishing touches to his plane, in which he will fly to Havre tomorrow morning to meet his wife aboard the French liner Ile-De-France.

Monsieur and Madame Assolant will have an escort of three airplanes, piloted by military aviators, on their honeymoon flight from Havre. Former comrades of Assolant from the 24th aviation regiment will man them.

Rene Lefevre and Armando Lotti, Jr., the other members of the Yellow Bird crew on its trans-Atlantic flight, will be passengers on the other planes.

SHIPS GATHER TO SEARCH FOR FOUR AVIATORS

Four Nations Unite In Hunt For Men Lost In Flight

MADRID, June 25.—(AP)—Ships and airplanes of four nations united today to search for the four missing Spanish aviators who, with three companions left Cartagena on Friday for the Azores on the first leg of a round trip flight to New York.

Spain, Italy, England and Portugal mobilized searching parties to comb the area between the Azores and the coast and the Azores by sea and air for the missing fliers.

The Spanish government maintained its hope that they would be found safely somewhere, either on land in some remote spot or aboard a small vessel unprovided with wireless. Nothing has been heard from them since Saturday, when a message purported to announce their landing in the Azores was picked up by a Portuguese ship.

The belief was growing in Spain despite general pessimism, that the four aviators may have attempted a jump flight from Spain to New York and been forced down somewhere beyond the Azores. This was only speculation, but a few of the friends of the aviators clung to the hope that the Spanish airplane had come down in some distant port of the Azores.

The Madrid military wireless station continued fruitlessly to investigate yesterday, that a British merchant ship had seen a plane wreckage about 100 miles northeast of the Azores. The Spanish liner Marques De Comillas altered its course to proceed to the spot.

TO HOLD HEARING ON MINERS INJUNCTION

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—John T. Jones, provisional president of sub-district No. 9, United Mine Workers of America, was advised today, he announced, that a hearing on an injunction under which he and other officers of the district are held, their offices has been set for July 8 in Benton, before Judge J. C. Kern in vacation at Carmi June 26. Provisional officers seek to have it dissolved.

The injunction came as a result of an order from John L. Lewis, international president, revoking the charter of sub-district No. 9 and the appointment of a new set of officers to take charge of affairs of the district. President Lewis charged insubordination on the part of the district officers but the deposed officials contend they were not given the right of trial and that they therefore will not surrender their offices without a fight.

DOUBT HALL-MILLS GUN FOUND IN LEAVENWORTH

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, June 25.—(AP)—Two Michigan state policemen today recovered a revolver from a pawn shop here described by Kenneth Gledau, formerly of Leavenworth, as the Hall-Mills slaying near New Brunswick, N.J.

Gledau, an ex-convict, under arrest in Detroit for violation of the Dyer and Mann acts, asserts he was an eye witness to the killings. His story generally is discredited by officers.

Gledau says he was paid $8,000 hush money after he saw the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall shot to death and his choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, killed with a knife. His story is that he brought the revolver to Leavenworth. He also has produced a knife he says was used.

MATHILDE OBER RETURNS

Chicago, June 25.—(AP)—Mathilde McCormick Ober, with her Swiss riding master husband, her two children, a Swiss nurse and a maid, returned to Chicago today for the first time since her marriage.

The station platform waiting excited as the train pulled in was her father, Harold McCormick. It had been three years since he had seen his daughter.

Edith Rockefeller McCormick, who disapproved of the marriage was not at the station.

OMAHA CHURCH ASKS LUTHERAN SYNOD HEARING

Allowed Secret Body Men To Receive Communion

RIVER FOREST, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—An appeal from the congregation of the Immanuel Lutheran church of Omaha, Neb., recently suspended by the Nebraska district for continued practice of allowing members of secret fraternal organizations to partake of communion, will be considered by the 34th triennial convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Missouri synod, it was learned today.

The synod, of which the Nebraska district is a member, today reaffirmed its traditional stand against permitting members of secret societies to be communicant members of the church for any length of time.

It was the unanimous opinion of the synod that a district that the Omaha church, of which Rev. F. W. Seestok is pastor, exceeded the time that individual lodge members, newly converted to the church or its principles, would be allowed communion, it was learned.

Theodore Graebner of Concordia seminary, St. Louis, and chairman of the committee regulating pastoral practices on the subject, explained the true of organization at which the restriction is aimed. These organizations include those whose ritual avoids reference to the trinity while speaking of the supreme being and to Jesus Christ in required prayers, he said, and which further substitute redemption through moral effort rather than Christianity.

In further elaboration of the synod's stand a statement was issued by Prof. Graebner in which he said the lodge system since organization of the first Masonic Blue Lodge is detestable.

"It stands to reason that a detestable form of worship and a trinitarian form of worship are mutually exclusive," he said. "The God worshipped by the lodge on Thursday night is not God and Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ as proclaimed by Christians on Sunday morning."

M. E. Kretzman of Kendallville, Ind., was elected secretary of the synod and F. Seibel, Prof. L. Feubling and E. Eichardt, all of St. Louis, were named treasurer, foreign correspondence and statistician, respectively.

Marion Sommer, St. Louis, made editor of the Lutheran Witness.

The following were elected to the board of directors: Rev. William Hagan, Detroit; Rev. F. C. Streufert, Chicago; Henry Horst, Rock Island, Ill.; W. H. Schleuter, St. Louis, and Eugene Wengert, Milwaukee.

ASK MEXICANS FOR COOPERATION WITH GOVERNMENT HEADS

MEXICO CITY, June 25.—(AP)—A pastoral letter to Mexican Catholics asking all to avoid mixing in politics, to obey the laws and to lend all efforts for a permanent solution of the religious problem was issued today by Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz Y Flores, apostolic delegate.

The letter said: "We have offered to cooperate with the government with all our force, moral and otherwise, for the betterment of the people. We therefore earnestly beg the priests and the faithful to follow rigidly and dutifully the instructions the episcopate will issue to attain this end."

"We hope sincerely that no one will accuse the church of improperly mixing in politics because of the necessary relations of the church must have in order to bring the matter to definite solution. We repeat, as has been said many times previously, the church has no interest in maintaining or opposing particular governments. Nor have we any interest in any political candidate. We desire nothing more than to fortify the principle of authority and to accept the degree of liberty which we require from the hands of all governments."

The letter makes the first detailed explanation of the Catholic viewpoint on the present situation. It says that in as much as was not possible of the religious laws it was deemed best first to arrange for renewal of services in order to remedy the ill that continued suspension of services might cause. This was accomplished when the government agreed to recognize church rights and to grant liberties for its social existence.

SEWER GAS FATAL

Fond Du Lac, Wis., June 25.—(AP)—Two workmen were killed here late Monday in attempt to resuscitate a man who was overcome by sewer gas while working in a conduit at the Fred Ruephing Leather company plant here.

The dead are Max McClellan, 39, and Louis Hansen, 49, whose names they tried to resuscitate and who were expected to recover at St. Agnes hospital, here, are John L. Staples, 46, and S. F. Billington, 61.

FATHER GIVES BLOOD

Minneapolis, June 25.—(AP)—John Marshall Newton, 9 years old, whose leg was crushed under a principle car Thursday, underwent a blood transfusion operation today in an effort to build up his strength prior to amputation of the limb.

Former Congressman Walter H. Newton, one of President Hoover's secretaries and the boy's father, furnished the blood.

Chief Of Scotland Yard To Retire At 64; Solved Murders Like S. Holmes

LONDON, June 25.—(AP)—Credited with solution of more murder mysteries than any living man, Frederick Wensley at the age of 64 today announced he would give over his duties as chief of the criminal intelligence division of Scotland Yard to devote his time to his garden.

The control of the division was expected to revert back to the five area superintendents, known as "the big five," since the post of chief constable now held by Wensley was created more as a compliment to his remarkable record of crime detection rather than as a permanent police office.

Chief Constable Wensley plans to quit Scotland Yard at the end of July. He declined a special five year extension in office beyond the age limit, offered as a sign of confidence on the part of the highest police authorities in England.

His career began in the Limehouse district as a plain policeman in 1888. He came to know every nook of Chinatown and the east end and the location of anarchist haunts and dens of iniquity in the slummy streets of Shoreditch, Whitechapel, Hackney and Wapping. Thirty years of his life were spent in ferreting about this queer underworld.

With his hawk-like features, deep set piercing eyes and bushy eyebrows, Wensley resembles Lord Reading and really looks the part that novelists and playwrights have assigned the detective.

In real life his work often shamed the amateur exploits of his prototypes in fiction.

His most recent case was in bringing to book Sergeant Goddard, one of his associates, for bribes in connection with west end night club life.

Most of his cases were sordid murders which were not sensational but which required much skill to solve.

WOOL SCHEDULE IS CENTER OF DEBATE AT TARIFF HEARING

Large Number Urge Higher Duties on Imported Wool Products

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—The wool schedule, which 20 years ago played a large part in splitting republican ranks, continued to hold the attention today at hearings on the house tariff bill of three senate filibuster subjects.

Sheep and goat raisers of Texas, mill workers of New Jersey, and woolen manufacturers pleaded for higher rates than the house increases proposed on wool and woolen goods, while others held the bill duties outrageous.

Two other Western farm representatives are seeking from 70 to 84 cents on flaxseed.

Meanwhile President Hoover exercised his authority under the flexible tariff provisions and proclaimed a rate of 3.7 cents a pound on linseed oil, 33 cents duty. This would compensate for the recently proclaimed increase from 40 to 56 cents a bushel in the duty on flaxseed. The house bill would increase the flaxseed oil rate to 4.15 cents and that on flaxseed to 35 cents.

Two other Western farm representatives are seeking from 70 to 84 cents on flaxseed.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—The first acts of the new labor government has been to cable the announcement that the British government intends to resume diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia in the near future.

Official confirmation of earlier reports that the British government intends to resume diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia in the near future.

Political observers believe the labor ministry's move will receive sufficient support from conservative and liberal members of parliament to assure approval of British diplomatic relations with Moscow.

It has long been known that the labor party was in favor of renewing relations with Russia and trade relations with Russia broken off by the Bolshevik revolution. London headquarters of the Russian commercial mission, made by the late conservative government in May, 1927.

Although his majesty's government is not technically dependent on opposition of its new Russian policy by the dominions, the cooperation of other parts of the British Empire is ardently desired in London.

Well-informed persons think that resumption of relations with Russia will be proposed in the king's speech from the throne, July 2, when will announce the program of the government.

CANNON'S BROKER WAS FIGUREHEAD, HE SAYS

NEW YORK, June 25.—(AP)—The theoretical and Kable and company brokers for Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church South, testified today that to the bishop he was "just the office boy" although able to identify the bishop's account as one for stock speculation.

The witness was Charles W. Kable, appearing at a referee's hearing into the bankruptcy of Kable and company, which has been raided as a racket shop. Kable and Harry L. Goldhurst, a member of the firm, are under indictment for using the mails to defraud.

Kable said in connection with the operations of the company.

Kable said he was a mere figurehead for Goldhurst who had brought in the southern bishop as the prize customer of the firm.

Kable was shown a photostatic copy of the bishop's account, and C. Edward Benoit, attorney for Miss Anna Palans, trustee in bankruptcy, asked: "Don't you see that Bishop Cannon's was really a speculative account, that those securities were not held for any length of time?"

Kable replied, "The account must have been speculative in view of the amount and volume of the transactions."

RETIRED FARMER AT DANVILLE IS SUICIDE

DANVILLE, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—Marion F. Elder, 69, wealthy retired farmer, early today fired three shots at his wife, Louise, as she sat propped up in a sick bed in their home and then shot and killed himself.

Mrs. Elder ran screaming from the house with a bullet wound in the forehead. Police found Elder dropped over the bed with a bullet hole in his head and one in his heart.

He had suffered from palsy for seven years and police believe that his illness drove him temporarily insane. His wife, who was not seriously injured, has been ill for four months.

LINDBERGH AND WIFE AT COLUMBUS ON AIR TOUR

Columbus, Ohio, June 25.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his bride landed at the municipal airport here tonight five hours after they left New York on the first leg of a flight over the coast to coast air route chartered by the colonel.

Colonel Lindbergh explained that the delay in arrival here was due to a fog encountered over the Allegheny mountains which sent him somewhat off his course.

The flier and his bride will depart tomorrow with Indianapolis as their next stop.

MISSISSIPPI SENATE PASSES RESOLUTION ON DEPRIEST PARTY

Asks Hoover to Consider Inviting Negroes to White House

JACKSON, Miss., June 25.—(AP)—Unreserved disapproval of the entertainment at the white house of the wife of Oscar DePriest, negro representative from Illinois, was expressed today by the Mississippi state senate in a resolution adopted unanimously.

The resolution, calling on President Hoover to give "careful and thoughtful consideration to the necessity of the preservation of the racial integrity of the white race, was then sent to the house of representatives.

The senate brushed aside two substitutes seeking to soften the language of the resolution, which was declared adopted by a unanimous vote after Senator H. W. Bradshaw, of Rankin county, a Baptist minister, who voted against it in the first roll call had changed his vote.

"I changed my vote to make adoption of the resolution unanimous," said the minister. "I am opposed, however, to the matter being considered by us and being brought before us."

Senator J. C. Zeller, of Yazoo City, apologized for being absent in Illinois, explaining he would have been born in Louisiana if his father, a physician, had not taken his family to Illinois when he was called to fight and epidemic there.

"The incident as the revival of a thing we settled in the south at the end of the reconstruction days," said Senator W. B. Roberts of Rossdale.

HOOPER SIGNS NAME TO PROCLAMATION OF BOULDER DAM RIGHTS

Arizona Only One of Six States to Refuse to Accept Agreement

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—As president of the United States, Herbert Hoover today signed a proclamation bringing into force the Colorado river compact which as secretary of commerce he negotiated six years ago between the states of Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.

However, Arizona has failed to comply with the provisions of the compact, which relates to the distribution of the waters of the Colorado river between these states.

In announcing the signing of the proclamation, the president expressed the hope that Arizona and California "may compose their mutual problems which have hitherto prevented Arizona from joining the compact."

Under the terms of the act of congress the seven states were given six months within which to comply with the provisions of the compact and provision was made that if six had complied within that time the compact could be made effective by presidential proclamation.

While the compact as such has nothing to do with the Boulder dam construction and development, the president said it would remove the barriers to such development as well as to the development of the whole river which has been retarded over a quarter of a century because of the inability of the states to get together on the allocation of waters between them.

MISSOURI GOVERNOR VETOES RAIL MEASURE

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 25.—(AP)—Governor B. P. Blood, today vetoed the "terminal permit" bill which, in effect, would have paved the way for a perpetual franchise to the public service company which operates the streetcar system in St. Louis.

The indeterminate form of franchise properly safeguarded undoubtedly is of great advantage to the public as well as to the utility," the governor said. "I would sign this bill were I not convinced that it is unnecessary and evasive evasion of the chartering powers of St. Louis."

The bill would have conferred upon the state public service commission franchise to common carriers in St. Louis, with the power to grant indeterminate franchises to utility city charter, reserving franchises to fifty years.

Illinois recently adopted a somewhat similar bill.

TEXAS AVIATOR IS FOUND GUILTY OF BANK ROBBERY

GARY, Ind., June 25.—(AP)—Foster P. Jones, Dallas, Texas aviator, today was convicted of participation in the holdup of the Glen Park State bank here last March. Sentence will be pronounced July 2.

Jones claimed in defense that he was forced into the holdup while intoxicated. He was shot and wounded in his escape and was apprehended the next day in the basement of a Gary home. His two companions got away with $7,100 in cash.

NO PROPAGANDA IN SCHOOLS PLANNED, DORAN

Admonish Teachers to Help In Law Enforcement

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—The treasury department does not intend to use the public schools as a medium for disseminating propaganda favoring prohibition.

Announcement of this policy was made today by prohibition Commissioner Doran after the publication of a pamphlet containing slogans and prohibitory legislation propaganda to teachers to help law enforcement in their work by Anna B. Sutter, director of the statistical and educational division of the prohibition bureau.

Commissioner Doran issued the announcement following a conference with Under Secretary Mills, Assistant Secretary Lowman and Deputy Prohibition Commissioner Jackson in the office of Mills. Earlier in the day Miss Sutter was summoned to a conference with Assistant Secretary Lowman dealing with the publication of the pamphlet, which also listed eight subjects for schools which dealt with prohibition.

Miss Sutter also quoted in newspaper articles as having said she hoped congress would later appropriate funds to enable the bureau to disseminate prohibition propaganda over the radio and in the newspapers. High treasury officials said they had not heard of the plan or approved it.

Citing that the last session of congress had appropriated $50,000 for the dissemination of information about prohibition, Commissioner Doran said that "a wrong impression seems to have been created as to just what the prohibition bureau is to do with this money."

The treasury department, he declared, "is not expecting to carry on a system of propaganda in the public schools in connection with this work." The prohibition bureau has prepared, he continued, "a limited number of pamphlets which contain accurate information on these subjects as well as the economic phases of prohibition and they are available should they be desired. The federal government is not going to supply any teachers or lecturers for this work, but upon request from the regular constituted school authorities the bureau of prohibition will furnish such pamphlets and information as it has available."

TO PROSECUTE RAIL ROADS IN MALT CASE

DES MOINES, Ia., June 25.—(AP)—John B. Hamond today prepared to continue his battle against near beer by warning railroad companies that they were liable for penalties provided for transportation of malt liquors.

"I am willing to give the railroads a chance to recognize and conform with the law which makes all malt beverages in the state illegal," he said. "I am going to warn them and then, if they don't observe the law, I shall have to act," he said.

Hammond also declared that he would insist that every technicality of the law be observed in connection with the battle he is waging against near beer. He said a postponement of the hearing set for tomorrow might be necessary.

GANNA WALSKA IGNORED IN $35,000,000 WILL

White Plains, N. Y., June 25.—(AP)—Alexander Smith Cochran, wealthy Yonkers carpet manufacturer, left the bulk of his $35,000,000 estate to ninety relatives, friends, employees and servants, his will, filed today showed.

Nearly two million dollars was left to charity, $1,000,000 of which was bequeathed to the chapter of the National Cathedral, Washington, as an endowment fund for the college of preachers. Mr. Cochran's eldest nephew, Thomas Ewing, Jr., the chief beneficiary, will receive the residuary estate, valued at $10,000,000.

No mention was made in the will of Ganna Walska, Mr. Cochran's former wife, who now is the wife of Harold F. McCormick.

NON-STOP HOP AROUND WORLD PILOTS PICKED

Five Men Chosen For Refueling Flight Now Planned

BALTIMORE, Md., June 25.—(AP)—Alfred D. Hulse, who described himself as a lieutenant in the officers' reserve corps, left here today by plane for Detroit, after outlining plans and announcing personnel for his projected round the world nonstop refueling flight.

Hulse said that Lieut. Henry L. Gullback of Detroit as chief pilot, Lieut. Roy Miller of San Francisco, navigator, Lieut. Edward Springer, Edgewood arsenal, alternate pilot, Lieut. Earl O'Connell, of Lakehurst, N. J., radio operator, and himself as engineering officer and pilot would comprise the crew for the proposed trip, which he said was being backed by five anti-aircraft ships.

Springer said that he had no statement to make, but that he was not definitely committed to the flight. He said that he had been in conference with Hulse, but that the latter had not fully outlined his plans to him, and therefore he would not comment.

Hulse said that the flight would be attempted from West to East in a five and one-half ton monoplane which has been christened "Keystone Patriotic." He said that the start would be made from Roosevelt field, New York City, near West Point, and turn out over the Atlantic. He said he expected the first day's flight to take the plane to Hamburg, Germany, the second to Hovogorod, Russia, the third to Nome, Alaska, the fourth to Seattle, completing the entire trip in five and one-half days. He said he plans to make 22 refueling contacts during the flight.

DENY SHORTAGE CHARGE MADE IN MINE UNION

BATTLE OF HABEAS CORPUS IS RAGING IN PEORIA COUNTY

BENTON, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—A denial that an intricate charging conspiracy to defraud in connection with an alleged shortage of $25,000 was voted today by the Franklin county grand jury against four ousted officials of the Orient local of the United Mine Workers of America, Inc., brought by county officials. The grand jury only opened its sessions today and was not expected to make a report before tomorrow evening.

An audit of the Orient local, said to be the largest in Illinois with approximately 2,000 miners employed at Orient Mine No. 2, near West Frankfort, has been under way by the state and international miners' unions. The check has been made against the mine payrolls and from information obtained from local miners of the books of the union were reported stolen recently.

The four officials said to be involved, Al Metten, president, John Patterson, recording secretary, Joseph Rogers, financial secretary and C. B. McDonough treasurer, were voted from office at a meeting of the local about six weeks ago. McDonough was indicted on an embezzlement charge last March but has never been apprehended.

CASHIER'S SCREAMS FRIGHTEEN ROBBERS

PADUCAH, Ky., June 25.—(AP)—Robbers were unsuccessful in an attempt to hold up the Brookport National bank at Brookport, Ill., across the river from Paducah, today.

Three men drove up to the bank in an automobile. Two entered and pointed a gun at Miss Mary Hope Hoffield, assistant cashier. She screamed and the president of the bank and several other officials rushed out of a private office. The robbers fled. The car bore an Illinois license.

HOLD SPRINGFIELD YOUTH INDIANAPOLIS, ILL.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 25.—(AP)—H. A. Messenger, Springfield, Ill., and Manuel P. Simer, Detroit, today were bound over to the federal grand jury on charges of violating the national motor vehicle theft act. Leo was sentenced to five years on each of four counts, the sentences to run concurrently. Ted received a similar sentence on three counts.

Both men are serving two years imposed several months ago when they were convicted with several others in an alleged car theft ring. Charges to which they entered guilty pleas today included theft and transportation of the stolen cars.

KIWANIAN AT MEET DEPLORE BIG WAR TALK

Canadians To Sponsor Resolution Of Condemnation

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 25.—(AP)—Deploping what they say is the practice of many public men of various countries to talk about "the next great war" a group of Canadian delegates to the thirteenth annual convention of Kiwanis International will offer a resolution of condemnation. The resolution is to be introduced by Harold M. Dignon, chairman of the public affairs commission of the Dominion of Canada, and says in part that "whereas the peoples of the English-speaking nations as well as those of the world are overwhelmingly opposed to war and in favor of peaceful settlement of all international disputes, be it resolved we deplore the practice of many public men to give utterance to what they term the 'next great war' and that Kiwanis clubs everywhere be exhorted to voice their opposition to such utterances of the afore said pernicious practice."

Honest men in business form the new aristocracy, the largest civilization has ever known, declared John B. Kennedy, an extensive employer of Colliers Weekly in an address today.

Obviously, he said, the great majority of business men are honest, for if they were not, there could not possibly be a huge and smoothly functioning system of business such as exists in this country and a really functioning system of legalized burglary.

No Longer Fear Business

Today, he said, big business is no longer feared, for business has become progressive rather than aggressive. Relations between employer and employee are improved, he said, labor troubles are fewer, arbitration is practiced more and more and better business bureau function, voluntarily supported by honest business men, reducing the number of frauds.

Characterizing the entire business, he declared, citing John D. Rockefeller's recent flight within the Standard Oil company of Indiana as an example.

Vocational guidance for boys and girls to place them in jobs where they will best fit and where their future will be assured, he said, is in time, become a function of every state educational system, it was predicted by C. P. Sgard, vocational expert of New York, in an address today. Some states now perform such service, he said, and Kiwanis clubs are urged to do so.

COURTS TO DECIDE THURSDAY ON WHO SHALL HAVE MORRIS MANSFIELD

PEORIA, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—The battle of habeas corpus bids fair to take its place in the legal history of Peoria and Kane counties as soon as the courts decide who shall have custody of Morris Mansfield, bootlegger, charged with distributing the poisonous liquor which caused several deaths here in March.

Deputy Sheriff George Jones of Kane county today served Sheriff Grant Minor of Peoria county with a writ ordering him to produce Mansfield before City Court Judge Shopen in Peoria and to show cause why Mansfield should not be permitted to make bond pending trial on the charges. Minor thereupon served Jones with a writ ordering him to produce Minor in Peoria court Saturday morning before Judge Nelhaus who will be asked to grant if the Elgin county jurisdiction extends beyond the city limits of that city.

Attorneys for Mansfield base their plea for bonds on the fact that other defendants indicted in connection with the flood of poison liquor have been released on bonds. Two of the defendants have not been arrested.

BROTHERS SENTENCED FOR STEALING AUTOS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 25.—(AP)—Leo and Ted Baldwin, brothers, former Chicago residents, today pleaded guilty in federal court to subversive charges of violating the national motor vehicle theft act. Leo was sentenced to five years on each of four counts, the sentences to run concurrently. Ted received a similar sentence on three counts.

Both men are serving two years imposed several months ago when they were convicted with several others in an alleged car theft ring. Charges to which they entered guilty pleas today included theft and transportation of the stolen cars.

DISAPPROVE CAPITOL TEA JACKSON, MISS.

Jackson, Miss., June 25.—(AP)—The Mississippi state senate unanimously adopted a resolution expressing disapproval of the entertainment of the wife of Oscar De Priest, negro congressman from Illinois, at a tea held at the white house June 14.

The resolution appealed to President Hoover's entire moral and thoughtful consideration of the necessity of the preservation of racial integrity of the white race.

DEEP BREATHING

According to an old Chinese writing, "the pure men of old slept without dreams and wake without anxiety. They ate without discrimination, drawing deep breaths. For pure men draw breath from their uttermost depths, the vulgar only from their throats."

Deep breathing was urged by Taoist teachers thousands of years ago, as the way to physical and mental health. The western world has but lately arrived at the same doctrine. There need be nothing mystical about it. Our life process is sustained by oxygen, gained from the air we breathe. Plenty of oxygen means red blood. Many of our physical and mental woes are caused by not getting enough oxygen into our systems to burn up the waste material in our blood and the food-fuel with which we stock our furnaces.

GOLFERS AND FLYERS

A flying field and golf course do not make good neighbors. The famous Roosevelt Field in New York is adjacent to a golf club. Officers of the latter complain that airplanes have fallen on the course and that pilots frequently fly so low over the course that they menace golfers.

The club threatens to erect a 100-foot wire fence to keep the planes out. Officials of the flying field say that such a fence would stir up a menace to flyers taking off on a windy day. Each group is willing to make a legal fight for its rights.

There may be more such conflicts as time goes on. Golf clubs are increasing in number, as are flying fields. Except for municipal airports, which are usually located near the city as possible, many fields are purposely placed in outlying districts so that flying tests may be made and instructions given without getting mixed up with city buildings.

It looks as if the only solution to the problem would be to maintain a neutral zone between the two, a strip of land on which the flyers and golfers would come only in emergency.

MARQUIS MARCONI

The inventor of wireless telegraphy is now Marquis Marconi. The king of Italy has conferred the title upon him and the honor is hereditary. It affords enduring recognition of a great contribution to human progress. Son of an Italian father and an Irish mother, Guglielmo Marconi began his experiments while a student at the oldest of European universities, that of Bologna. His first successful tests were made in England, and in 1899, when he was just 25, he communicated successfully from England to France. Two years later his signals spanned the Atlantic. By 1904 his system was finding its way into general use on shipboard.

In 1909 Marconi was awarded the Nobel prize in physics. In 1912 he was made a life member of the Italian senate. During the war he had charge of wireless in the Italian army and served as a member of the Italian commission to the United States in 1917.

His scientific achievements and his public service have commended the world's respect, and Italy honors him in a way seasoned by precedent. Our constitution forbids that sort of thing, and perhaps it is just as well. But one must be very much the republican enthusiast to frown upon the practice in a case like this.

Last Times Today

"The Rainbow Man" is an all talking and singing screen romance, plentifully supplied with instrumental music which makes not one note of "blues" or "yo-deo-do."

But the fact that it defies the great American jazz tradition is not alone the reason for recommending "The Rainbow Man." It is first of all a real human story, simple, but true and, possibly, in the high calibre in the hands of everyone in the cast. Eddie Dowling is a small-time minstrel man who adopts the little boy, Frankie Darro after his father, George Hayes, is victim of vodka accident. Marian Nixon is the daughter of a small town, and she falls in love with Dowling while his troupe is playing her town.

The plot goes forward through sunshine and tears and comedy reasoned with episodic drama, until finally the lovers are joined in a touching scene wherein the rainbow of their romance comes shining through. The melodies of the production, "Rainbow Man," "Smile Little Pal" and "Sleepy Valley" are of a pleasing quality, reminiscent of "Honeymoon Lane" and "Log Cabin of Dreams." Here is a sound film romance which thoroughly justifies the "talkies." It is one of the best screen entertainments this reviewer has ever hearkened to or beheld.

MAJESTIC

Today and Tomorrow

"The Bandit Chaser," which opens tonight at the Majestic Theatre is a gem of fast action replete with thrills and stirring moments. It is one of the famous ART MIX series and features George Kesterson and Peggy Joy, together with Arno, the wonder dog, and the two wonder horses belonging to Mr. Kesterson and Miss Joy.

There is not a dull moment in this great story of the man who cleared the region of the smugglers who threatened the very existence of the settlers. Lawlessness again falls and the powers of law and order triumph in a melee of light and speed and daring on the part of Kesterson.

Regular meeting Charity Temple No. 30 Pythian Sisters. All Nos. urged to attend. Grand Chief, Mrs. Cora Tomlinson will be present. K. of P. Hall, 8 o'clock tonight. M. C. Chumley, M. E. C. D. N. Crabbe, M. of R. N. C.

You Give Theft Your Moral Support When You Shake Hands With a Thief

By Robert Quillen

There is a way to reform America within a year.

The greatest power for good and the greatest enemy of evil is public opinion. Harness public opinion and evil can be destroyed.

But, you say, public opinion even now is arrayed against evil and accomplishes nothing.

That is true in a measure, but man's failure to harness a waterfall does not alter the fact of its power. Opinion entertained in silence achieves nothing. It must be declared boldly. It must reveal the scorn it feels. It must prompt an ostracism of evil.

No man is too low to feel the sting of scorn. The worst of all criminals has accepted standards of conduct, and the member who violates these standards suffers the contempt of his fellows. Dread of that contempt is more potent than the laws of orthodox society.

No man reveals the whole of his public self to many acts, most of them trivial, of which he is ashamed. He conceals them to avoid the scorn of other men.

Scorn is more dreadful than any other punishment and the universal dread of it places in the hands of respectable people a weapon that can overcome all the powers of evil.

How can scorn be made effective? Merely by revealing itself.

This does not mean that the self-righteous should draw their cloaks about the mis escape contamination and turn their backs on all who are imperfect.

No man is free of faults: most of us have bad habits; no one is qualified to throw the first stone.

But honor is fundamental, and the line between honor and dishonor can be and should be sharply drawn. The man who disgraces manhood by dishonesty—whose word is worthless, who lies, steals, cheats, who stoops to any villainous unworthy of men—should find every back turned upon him and every door closed against him.

While society conceals its opinions and for courtesy's sake, or because of respect, does not ostracize those unworthy of respect.

Let every decent man and woman pledge himself this day to reveal the scorn that is in him and turn his back on the indecent, and within a fortnight there will be a new birth of righteousness.

To glorify the criminal is to encourage crime. To accept the hand of a rogue is to encourage rascality. Contempt alone can control those who have no fear of law.

TODAY'S TALK

By George Mathew Adams.

ON LOSING YOURSELF

It is a marvelous achievement to be able to lose yourself in the thing you do, or in the idea that you have evolved, or in some unusual spot of beauty.

I recall when I first viewed the Grand Canyon of Arizona. I was so awed that I found no words able in the slightest degree to express the sight before me. I have never read anything, or seen anything, pictured or painted, that gave but a suggestion of the gorgeousness of this stupendous formation of nature. I was completely lost from myself as I stood and viewed that chasm of formation and mysteries and colors.

You can lose yourself in a book, become so absorbed that you live the characters described, and you can do the same in a well acted play.

Last evening I became so absorbed in the life story of a noted man that I read far into the night. It was the story of a boy who came out of Harvard and took the first job that presented itself to him. It paid but a few dollars a week. But so absorbed did this young man become in his work that he forgot hours and personal pleasures and lost himself in the undertaking. In a period of about 20 years he became a partner in the firm he started to work for, and has accumulated a great fortune. The motto of this firm was not to let the ones you dealt with ever lose confidence in you.

You always see the life of a great artist in the work he creates, whether this be a symphony, a painting, a book, or a business achievement. And yet we never know all that an artist puts into the thing he does. For much of the beauty and mystery which the artist puts into his creation but a reflection of himself—that intangible, unseen something which leaves a glow of the man himself long after he has gone from this earth.

One of the secrets of a happy life is not to get lost within yourself, where you all too often grow narrow, bitter, and selfish.

Pythian Sisters Entertain Grand Chief

Charity Temple No. 30, Pythian Sisters, met in regular session Tuesday evening with a goodly attendance of members. At this time the temple was honored by having the presence of Mrs. Cora Tomlinson, grand chief of Illinois, who made this the occasion of her annual visit to Charity Temple. Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed by all, during which refreshments were served in the banquet hall. About 11 other visitors accompanied Mrs. Tomlinson from Springfield, one of which was District Deputy Marcell Reed, deputy of district No. 12, Pythian Sisters. The members of Charity Temple were very glad to have so many visitors present and all hope that Mrs. Tomlinson may be able to come again soon.

State Street Church Holds Annual Picnic

The annual Sunday school and congregational picnic of the State Street Presbyterian church was held Tuesday evening at Nichols park, with an unusually large attendance at the gathering.

Games were enjoyed by the various groups of the church and at six o'clock a picnic supper was served by a committee under the direction of Mrs. William Floeth.

Mrs. Lillian Denstun was in charge of the transportation and P. A. Fisher directed the sports and games. John K. Furry, superintendent of the Sunday school department, announced that church services would be discontinued after Sunday, June 30 and September. He also announced that the sacrament of the Lord's Supper would be celebrated next Sunday morning, and that new members would be received either by letter or confession of faith.

The picnic was the largest attended being given by the State Street church in several years.

Dear Friends:

The boss was waiting on a couple of good looking ladies the other day. Which is nothing unusual at all.

But these particular ladies were admiring our line of Silver Tableware and one of them remarked that she had been all over a nearby big city recently hunting for a piece that just struck her fancy and here she went and found it right at home.

I kept still, but I sure wanted to tell her she might have saved herself some trouble by looking at home first, but I thought what was the use as long as it turned out all right anyway.

Ticker

P.S.—The boss wanted me to write an ad about compacts this week but I got so excited over this other matter that I plum forgot it.

SCHRAM and BUHRMAN

Declares Powder and Rouge are Not Modern

River Forest, Ill., June 24.—If rouge and lipstick make a woman more attractive, their moderate use is all right, in the opinion of Dr. Walter A. Maler, of St. Louis, editor of the Waltham League Messenger, a young people's magazine, and prominent on the programs of the 24th triennial convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Missouri Synod.

Painting and powdering are thumb-nail sins catalogued in the indictments of modern youth, Dr. Maler said, but anyone who thinks that such denunciations are a reaction to the present generation alone or that the practice is a development of today does not know his history, Dr. Maler brought out.

"In America as early as the good old days of 1686 we read of one Boston belle who was denounced in these terms: 'To hid her age, she paints; and to hide her painting, dares hardly laugh,' he said. 'So if professional reformers point to a predominance of beauty-aides, we can heartily agree, but we cannot agree that this is the product of the present age. The early colonial newspapers revealed the Puritan prototype of all this in their advertisements.'

Special recommendation will be accorded Dr. Jacob W. Miller, of St. Paul's church at Fort Wayne, Ind., tonight for his twenty-two years of service as vice president of the synod. Dr. Louis Fuerbringer, of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, will deliver a congratulatory address.

Dr. Miller was nominated for reelection to the vice presidency, but withdrew his name, giving poor health as the reason.

Chapin

Chapin, Ill., June 25.—Mrs. E. W. Farnsworth was hostess to the Chapin Women's club Tuesday afternoon. Nineteen members were present and in answer to roll call, "a new book" was named. Mrs. J. Z. Fox read an original poem, in which all the club members' names appeared. Mrs. E. E. Sides and Mrs. E. H. Nienhueser gave a report of the county federation picnic of June 20. Mrs. E. F. Antrobus read an interesting paper on "Fashion, Its Advantages and Tyranny." Mrs. James Guinnane was welcomed as a new club member. During a pleasant social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. Mrs. E. F. Munn of St. Charles was a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schall and children of Beardstown were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Nortrup.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Munn and little son David of St. Charles arrived Saturday night to visit at the Gustav Onken home. Mr. Munn returned home Monday but Mrs. Munn and son will remain for a longer visit.

Miss Kathryn Guinnane and Miss Helen Guinnane left Saturday night for Benton Harbor, Mich., where they will spend the summer.

Harry Hutchins of Jacksonville was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Hutches.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Allen and children of Petersburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Onken.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Nienhueser have taken a child from the Lutheran Orphanage at Peoria, Heen Lane, a 10 year old girl.

Mrs. John Schmink and daughter Corinne of Columbus, O., are guests of Mrs. Alice Joy and H. P. Joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grady entertained at a supper party Sunday evening in honor of their wedding anniversary and three birthday guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilcox and their guest.

Mrs. Betty Joy, Miss Helen Sides, Mrs. Kellogg and James Kellogg, members of the M. P. Sunday school, will Monday for Depler Springs near Lewisport to attend the Methodist Protestant young people's conference and school of methods.

The children of the Christian Sunday school enjoyed a picnic Tuesday afternoon on the church lawn.

Last chance Saturday for Baby Chicks. H. L. Smith Hardware.

MATRIMONY

Ingalsbe-Laxton.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Laxton of Bettick, Ill., a former Jacksonville young woman, and Spencer T. Ingalsbe of New Salem, Ill. The ceremony took place June 20 at Jerseyville at the Presbyterian manse, with Rev. Harold S. Farrill officiating. The bride attended Brown's Business College here and later was employed as a stenographer in local offices.

Miller-Smith

John F. Miller of Morton, Ill., and Miss Carolyn A. Smith of Peoria were united in marriage at noon Tuesday at Grace M. E. church. The pastor, Rev. A. K. Byrns, performed the ceremony. The couple were attended by Miss Edna Denson and Henry Bollinger.

The couple will make their home at Morton, where Mr. Miller is a contractor and builder.

On Tuesday evening, June 25, a hamburger and ice cream social will be held on the church lawn, by the Adelphean class.

Serving will begin at 5:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason and family and Mrs. Stewart and daughters visited Sunday with relatives near Sinclair.

ORLEANS COUNTRY CLUB IN SESSION

The Orleans Woman's Country club picnic which was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Scott south of Arnold was attended by a large number of members and guests. A basket dinner was served under the care of a committee including Mrs. Wayne Kinnett, Mrs. Leonard Wood and Mrs. Marie Maltson.

The program of the afternoon was opened by the president of the club, Mrs. Ivan Cox. A report of the 1928 picnic was made by Mrs. Clark Stevenson. Miss Elizabeth Holley gave several delightful piano solos. Mrs. Manchester of New Berlin, accompanied by Mrs. Pervine of Pleasant Plains, entertained with two vocal solos.

Two readings, "The Prince of the Court Painters," and "In The Morning" were given by Miss Bernice Wood of Washington, D. C.

The program was in charge of Mrs. A. A. Curry, Mrs. George Holley and Mrs. Charles Wood.

A hidden name contest was won by Mrs. Ernest Strawn of Alexander; a clothes pin race was won by Miss Minnie Green of Jacksonville, and a throwing contest was won by Miss Bernice Wood.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Wood.

CLUBS

The wives of the patriachs will be entertained at the home of Mrs. G. H. Brainer, 505 Webster Ave., Thursday afternoon. A full attendance is desired.

WOODMAN INSURANCE MUST STAND HEARING

Denver, June 25.—(AP)—Suits against officers of the Woodmen of the World seeking to prevent them from putting into effect a new system of life insurance must go to trial on its merits in the Denver District Court.

The Colorado Supreme Court so ordered today in denying the officers' petition for a writ of prohibition and discharging the rule to show cause. Approximately 113,000 members throughout the United States are affected by the suit.

Policy holders in Colorado, Utah, Idaho and Montana filed the suit several weeks ago, alleging that if the new insurance system is made effective, hundreds of aged members will be unable to pay the higher premiums and will be forced out of the order.

They asserted that the purported amendments by which the new insurance was to be put into effect were voted illegally at the annual convention at Oakland, Cal., last year.

The defendant officers obtained a temporary writ of prohibition from the Supreme Court of Colorado against further proceedings in District Court here until the case was reviewed. They claimed that the lower court did not have jurisdiction.

The Supreme Court ruling today said that the District Court does have jurisdiction.

Figures made public today by the department of agriculture also disclosed that the crop of 1936 was eight percent less than 1935.

A decrease of 8 percent, the report said, would be equivalent to about 4,300,000 pigs. The decrease shown in the 11 cornbelt states was about 6 percent, which would be the equivalent to

Used Auto Parts
Tires : Radiators : Batteries

Talk About Airplane Rides

"Hello—I can talk now!" . . . Thrilling loops and dives 3000 feet in the air which would leave most people speechless had the opposite effect on Margaret Wintermyer, former New York telephone operator. A physician recommended the experiment.

SPRING PIG CROP IS SMALLEST SINCE 1925

Washington, June 25.—(AP)—The spring pig crop is the smallest since 1925.

Figures made public today by the department of agriculture also disclosed that the crop of 1936 was eight percent less than 1935.

A decrease of 8 percent, the report said, would be equivalent to about 4,300,000 pigs. The decrease shown in the 11 cornbelt states was about 6 percent, which would be the equivalent to about 2,500,000 pigs. The number of sows farrowed for the United States was about 10 percent smaller, the report said, and for the cornbelt about 8 percent smaller than last spring.

The report showed increases of about 17 percent in sows bred or to be bred for fall farrowing this year, compared to sows farrowed last year for the United States and also for the cornbelt. Factors that affect changes in the number of sows kept for farrow in the fall, the report declared, point to some increase in fall farrowings in the corn belt, but decreases in most other states.

IN AIR AFTER 50 HOURS

Minneapolis, June 25.—(AP)—With more than 50 hours in the air to their credit, Thorwald "Thunder" Johnson and Owen Haugland sped over a triangular course today in an attempt to beat the world's endurance flying record.

Haugland and Johnson took off at 5 a. m., Sunday in their cabin monoplane "Miss Minneapolis."

C. M. LEVY DIES

New York, June 25.—(AP)—Charles M. Levy of San Francisco, formerly president of the Western Pacific railroad, died last night at St. Luke's hospital. He was 70 years old.

Mr. Levy, who retired from business world about three years ago, was completing a trip around the world when he became ill here.

WILL PUSH CHARGES IN CARBONDALE CASE

Carbondale, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—State's Attorney Fletcher Lewis declared today he would press charges against six youths, members of prominent families, who are alleged to have burglarized a large number of summer homes and cottages in this vicinity.

Five of the youths are under bonds on burglary charges and the sixth, Everett Dodd, son of George Dodd, West Frankfort lawyer, is to be surrendered by his father, authorities said. The other five are Byford Hall and Kern Baston of Carbondale, Wendell Kane of Herrin, Ralph Choiser of Eadorado and Robert Ozment of Harrisburg. All were students or former students at the Teachers' College here.

Police said about twenty-five houses and cottages have been ransacked and that one missing mattress was found in the Dodd home where young Dodd and his companions are alleged to have "made whoopee" in the absence of his parents.

Members of the Thompson Lake and Midland Hills Country Clubs, whose homes were burglarized, today started a move to offer rewards for arrest and conviction of the burglars.

WET-DRY QUESTION IS LEFT TO DIPLOMATS

Washington, June 25.—(AP)—Officials of the state department said today that any action Ambassador James H. Doolittle might take to dry up his embassy was entirely within his own discretion. The question of serving intoxicating beverages in American missions in foreign countries has long been a debated one and many letters of inquiry have been received at the state department from dry law advocates on the subject.

Charles Evans Hughes, when secretary of state, stated in a letter to a United States senator that he considered the privilege of liquor being served in American missions broad to be one within the rights of the diplomats.

Mr. Hughes argued that the Volstead act did not prohibit the use of intoxicating liquors legally acquired. Since the liquors which are served in American embassies and legations are legally acquired, their use, he continued, could not rightfully be prohibited by this government.

So far as is known here officially, this would be the first instance in which an American diplomat abroad had decided not to serve any intoxicating beverages. It was emphasized, however, that some diplomats might have foregone their privilege without having made public announcement of their action.

CRIME NOT INCREASING VIRGINIA JUDGE SAYS

San Francisco, June 25.—(AP)—Judge Herbert G. Cochran, of Norfolk, Va., declared in an address here last night that despite the plague of racketeers and bandits, crime in the United States is not on the increase.

Judge Cochran, acting president of the National Probation Association, in session this week, supplied figures to support his claim. Despite the increase in population in the nation, actual commitments dropped one-third from 1913 to 1935, and the ratio has not increased materially since, he asserted.

"A lot of new crimes have been created by new laws, and there has been an increase in some types of crime and a decrease in others," the speaker declared. "Burglary has decreased and holdups and other bold youthful crimes have increased."

Chicago, with its machine gun armed racketeers is in no sense typical of the state of the country as a whole, the judge asserted, but represents the result of corrupt politics, large unassimilated foreign population and new laws, chiefly prohibition.

A national advocate of prohibition, Judge Cochran said the law should be administered strictly and scientifically and should be limited to first offenders and to carefully investigated exceptional cases.

RECEIVE BIDS FOR COAL

Bids for coal for use of the Jacksonville schools were submitted at a meeting of the board of education last night. No awards were made. A committee was named to consider the purchase of the fuel.

ROTHSTEIN'S PAL IS SHOT IN HOOTCH WAR

New York, June 25.—(AP)—The mysterious killing of Frank Marlow, boxing manager, former night club owner and friend of Arnold Rothstein, was believed by the police today to be due to a "beer war."

Marlow was found by two motorists in a clump of bushes near the Flushing, Long Island, cemetery and died a few minutes later in a police booth four blocks away late last night.

Police were inclined to think that he had been "taken for a ride" by gangsters.

Marlow, whose correct name was Frank Curto, was 38 years old and had only returned to this city on Friday from Boston where he had spent several months in promoting boxing matches.

Police said that robbery was not the motive for the killing of Marlow. They found $18 in his pockets and various personal belongings including a permit to carry a pistol issued in 1922.

Police were unable to find anyone who heard shots, but residents said two automobiles had passed along the road towards the Flushing cemetery a short time before the body was found.

BEARDSTOWN FORGETS FLOODS, PLAN HOLIDAY

Beardstown, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—City officials of Beardstown declare that five floods have failed to retard their city's progress and that they're going to demonstrate that fact at the three-day centennial and homecoming to be staged here July 24, 25 and 26.

One hundred years ago next July, Thomas Beard, a pioneer, rode into this territory and built a log hut at the spot that is now the foot of Main street.

Tracing the history of the town from that day to the present, the pageant will portray scenes of Lincoln as captain in the Black Hawk War, of Lincoln defending Tom Duff in the local city court, and other historic incidents.

The pageant will be held on the high school athletic field the night of July 24. A parade and homecoming jubilee will be staged the next day, and on July 26 the citizens of Beardstown and the surrounding territory will celebrate the completion of the flood protection works.

Walter E. Buck, county superintendent of schools, has charge of the plans for the celebration. He is being aided by an executive committee of prominent citizens.

GUILTY OF MURDER

Belair, Md., June 25.—(AP)—Carl Henderson, former Virginian, now of near Darlington, Md., was found guilty of second degree murder late yesterday in Harford county circuit court, in connection with the death of Herman Strauss, 18, February 18, of Chicago, who was hitch-hiking across the country. Sentence will be passed today by Judge Walter W. Preston.

TELL OR HARDING'S LOVE MAKING DURING SUIT FOR $250,000

Girl Says Engagement Was Almost Broken by Her Oil Burner Remark

CHICAGO, June 25.—(AP)—The love making of Franklin S. Harding, 62-year-old manufacturer of oil burners, as told by the young woman who is suing him for $250,000 for breach of promise, provided entertainment for a large crowd of courtroom fans today.

Miss Ann Livingston, who came from Tulsa, Okla., to take a position in the office of the millionaire Chicagoan, resumed her story, begun yesterday, with her arrival here in 1927. She told of the thrills of the big city, his home, and of her first ride on an elevated train.

The young woman's account of the inspection of the Harding home was one of the most exciting parts of her testimony for the packed room. She drew a laugh when she told of the visit to the basement and the incident which nearly ended their friendship.

"He turned on the oil burner in the basement so we could see it in motion," she said. "I had heard it was a silent one, but I thought it rattled and told him so."

"He told me if I acted like that he would not like me."

On the second floor of the house, Miss Livingston testified, Harding made advances for which he later apologized.

She described Harding's proposal in a Rogers Park restaurant.

"I told him I would marry him. He leaned over the table and kissed me," she said. "Ann, I feel like jumping up on the table and shouting. I am the happiest man in the world and I want to rush out and tell every one about it."

The most intent listener in the room was the young man, the defendant, who appeared nervous and a little wretched, sitting behind his ear at times when her voice dropped.

Ann's arrival in Chicago was not without complication, as far as Mr. Harding was concerned. His housekeeper for twenty-four years felt the intrusion of the younger woman.

"She thinks I should marry her," he confided to Ann when she arrived from Oklahoma. "She thinks I owe it to her."

But matters were patched up, Miss Livingston said, when the housekeeper, Josephine Brand, was assured a permanent home. She told of receiving a large diamond engagement ring and later, when she was ill with fever, she said Harding sent her a wedding ring, a bracelet of diamonds.

Helen, the young woman's daughter, was "very cool" and "snobbish" toward her, Ann said, but Franklin, Jr., a Dartmouth college student, was "a dear."

The engagement was broken when Harding decided Miss Livingston wanted his money more than she did him. He offered her as an annulment settlement $100,000, which she refused, Harding having told her she was worth $250,000.

GERMANS FEAR RESULT OF SPEECH IN BERLIN

Berlin, June 25.—(AP)—There was widespread apprehension in German official circles today, particularly close to the foreign office, following the speech of Gustav Stresemann, foreign minister, inferring that Europe was a colony of America which was being construed as unfriendly to Washington.

His statement was in refutation to nationalist charges that Germany was being made a colony of the former allies. "We are neither an English nor a French colony," he said, "but it seems doubtful if America is not in danger of becoming a colony of those who were luckier than we."

"That at Paris the colonies got together to relieve one another's situation by mutual concession—because there certainly were no concessions forthcoming from the other side—is a fact, which cannot be removed from the history of the Paris negotiations."

FIRST CRIME; LOSS 50 CENTS
Hammond, Ind., June 25.—(AP)—Two young Hammond bandits tonight entered in their ledgers in red ink: "On first crime, net loss, 50 cents."

For 45 they bought a gun, they told police. A taxi driver charged $3.50 for taking them to a carnival where they held up Samuel Epple, concessionaire, and secured but $8.

So Gene Grib, 19, and John Ashby, 20, were held to criminal court for robbery with a gun.

VOTE FOMCARE CONFIDENCE
Paris, June 25.—(AP)—Wednesday the government of Premier Raymond Poincare was given a vote of confidence 347 to 207 early this morning after a long night's session devoted to discussion of recent clashes in Morocco between dissident tribesmen and French troops. Yesterday evening the government had a much narrower escape when it was supported 201 to 266 in refusing to accept interpellation during debate on ratification of the debt agreement.

LIKEN FARMER'S AND BANKER'S TROUBLES

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 25.—(AP)—The troubles of the banker and of the farmer went like unto by speakers before the Iowa Bankers association convention here today, who made a plea for better management both on the farm and in the bank.

Lack of management, S. L. Cantley, Missouri bank superintendent, declared, was responsible in a large part for bank failures of the last decade. His point of view was stated by L. A. Andrew, Iowa bank commissioner, who forecast "increasing prosperity, both for the banks and business interests," because bankers have learned the lesson of good management.

A plea for better banking methods also was made by Craig B. Hazelwood of Chicago, president of the American Bankers association, and Ray Nye, master of Davenport, state bankers president. "It is high time," Hazelwood said, "that bankers awakened to the fact that the ultimate objective in running a bank is to make a profit and that this requires skilled management."

The speakers also urged consolidation of banks. Cantley declared that in Missouri at least the number of banks should be reduced by one-half and manned by competent managers or unit banking would be displaced by branch banking, which forebodes "centralization of all industry in the large cities with a resulting impoverishment of small towns."

When Italy and Church Made Peace

The Italian government and the Vatican had ended their disputes of 60 years' standing. And pictured above is the historic scene in the Papal Palace, Rome, when the Italian pact confirming Italy's agreement with the Church of Rome was put into effect. At the conference table are seen Premier Benito Mussolini, at the left, and Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, at the right.

ENJOINS PARTNER FROM TAKING PAPER CONTROL

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 25.—(AP)—Harold G. Gault, a court order here today directing his partner, William Lavarre, to show cause why Lavarre should not be enjoined from taking away from Gault operating control of the Augusta Chronicle, Columbia S. C. Record, Spartanburg, S. C. Herald and Spartanburg, S. C. Journal which they own jointly.

The order was made returnable next Tuesday by Judge A. L. Franklin of the Richmond county superior court and Thomas J. Hamilton, editor of the Chronicle, appointed temporary receiver of the property.

Under the direction of W. R. Mayes, prohibition administrator for Kentucky and Tennessee, and F. E. Wilson, local deputy administrator, the agents assembled at Arlington, a suburb at six o'clock this morning and sped into the city in automobiles.

No check was kept of the amount of liquor seized, the raiding squads destroying it where found.

The raids were conducted on information gathered by five "under cover" agents whose prohibition officers spent their time in "sneaking" violators of the liquor laws and places where moonshine was sold.

SINCLAIR AND FORMER AID MEET IN PRISON
Washington, June 25.—(AP)—Harry F. Sinclair and his lieutenant, Henry Mason Day, whose association in oil activities led them to wealth—and prison—met today for the first time in nearly a month at breakfast in the district jail.

"Well, Mason," said Sinclair, and Day responded with "Hello, chief." They shook hands and chatted for a moment before starting in on their prison fare.

Day, who began a four-month sentence for jury shadowing activities yesterday, has been made assistant storekeeper in the commissary department. He served with the A.E.F. as an official in the headquarters corps and has had training for the task.

His work will not bring him in contact with Sinclair, who is in the pharmacy department, during the day, but they will be allowed to be together if they wish during the short recreation hours at night and will meet at meal time.

Sentences for his part in the jury shadowing and for refusal to answer questions of a senate investigating committee.

FINISH FIRST ROUND OF MAYOR'S BATTLE
JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 25.—(AP)—The opening round of the legal fight in the second attempt of the New Jersey legislature to jail Mayor Frank Hague, national Democratic figure, for refusing to reveal the source and whereabouts of his reputed wealth, ended late today before Vice Chancellor John F. Fallon.

The vice chancellor, who listened to the same argument he heard last November, reserved decision on the motion of Russell E. Watson, counsel of the legislature, to set aside the writ of habeas corpus granted Mayor Hague after his arrest by a sergeant at arms of the senate last night. Pending the court's decision, the mayor remains free in bail of $1,000 set by Fallon.

TO SELL SITES
Chicago, June 25.—(AP)—Industrial sites valued at $20,000,000 along the right of way of the Chicago sanitary district canal, today were put on the market. More than 6,000 acres of land along the waterfront is available for manufacturers seeking to take advantage of the projected lakes to the gulf waterway.

HAIR CUTTING FIGHT IS TAKEN TO COURT
Springfield, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—Deputed in the legislature, beauty culturists of the state today brought to the courts their fight to be allowed to cut hair.

The suit, instituted in the Sangamon circuit court against Michael Walsh, director of the state department of registration, seeks to restrain Walsh from enforcing that part of the law in relation to barbers which forbids beauty culturists to practice the tonsorial art. Jessie M. Banghart, beauty shop operator of Chicago, is the plaintiff.

The beauty specialists are forbidden to trim locks unless they have a barber's license. She also contends that this is absurd, since to obtain a barber's license the culturist would have to also be able to shave and trim beards. She contends that section of the law is unconstitutional.

An attempt was made to amend the barber's law at the past session of the legislature.

IN AIR 62 HOURS
Minneapolis, June 25.—(AP)—Thorwald (Thunder) Johnson of St. Paul and Oswald Haugland of Minneapolis passed the 62 hour mark at seven o'clock tonight in their efforts to beat the world's endurance flying record of 172 hours, 32 minutes and one second.

Since taking off here at 5:00 p. m. Sunday the fliers have been soaring over an 80 mile course from Minneapolis to Northfield to Hastings and Minneapolis. Their ship has been refueled eight times.

PARIS WIDOW TELLS OF HUSBAND'S HABITS
PARIS, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—Before a crowded courtroom, Mrs. Laura Chapman, widow of James Chapman, 48, wealthy Kansas, Ill., land dealer, who was found slain in a deserted barn west of Kansas last May 25, took the witness stand today at the trial of Clyde Rowland, 50, accused of the slaying.

Mrs. Chapman, sobbing convulsively, identified several articles found in the clothing of her husband and testified she had often seen her husband walking towards the farm where his body was found. She said he had always returned drunk.

Pimples do not embarrass me now.... they are all gone

WITH the last blemish gone, confidence returns. More friends—more invitations—more good times. With the joy and pride of possessing a clear skin, self-respect increases.

Everybody wants to be attractive. It is a just and natural ambition. But no one can be attractive without a clear skin.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils, eczema and other skin eruptions as being an indication that the body's power of resistance is low.

The sure way to remedy this condition is to restore the red blood cells to normal.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and

Without plenty of rich, red blood there could be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or healthy, beautiful women.

FEDERALS ANSWER CHICAGO UNION'S PLEA FOR RADIO

Claim Preference Would be Shown if Clear Channel Allowed

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—The federal radio commission today filed in the court of appeals of the District of Columbia its answer to the suit brought by radio station W O F L, Chicago, to compel the commission to give it a cleared channel on 770 kilocycles.

The commission's brief declared it had refused to grant the Chicago Federation of Labor's application because it was convinced this would result in an "inequitable allocation of transmitting facilities, in violation of the law, preferential of Illinois and prejudicial to Nebraska."

"It would add to the present over-quota of facilities which Illinois enjoys and would take from Nebraska the only station (K F A B) which operates in that state with high power in a cleared channel," the brief continued.

The commission's answer asserted that, while the Chicago station's application was made on the contention that it wishes to serve the membership of the American Federation of Labor, "the evidence shows conclusively that station W O F L uses only from 12 to 15 minutes at the most out of a possible ten to twelve hours daily broadcast period in broadcasting in the interest of organized labor."

"This commission was of the opinion," the brief declared, "that there is no place for a station catering to any group, but that all stations should cater to the general public and serve public interest as against group or class interest."

ILLINOIS LAWYERS TO GATHER IN ROCKFORD

Rockford, Ill., June 25.—(AP)—Lawyers of Illinois will gather here Thursday for the annual meetings of the State Bar Association.

John D. Black of Chicago headed the nominee list for new officers and will be elected president to succeed Franklin L. Velde of Pekin.

Other officers named by the nominating committee to be elected are: Clarence Heyl, Peoria, first vice president; Amos C. Miller, Chicago, second vice president; June C. Smith, Centralia, third vice president; R. Allan Stephens, Springfield, secretary; Frank L. Mager, Springfield, treasurer; and Sumner S. Anderson, Charleston, and R. V. Fletcher, Chicago, members of the board of governors at large.

Encouraged by its large profits last year the Manila Railroad will extend its service to all parts of Luzon, P. I.

CLAIM KIDNAPERS ARE EX-IOWA BANK ROBBERS

DE MOINES, Iowa, June 25.—(AP)—Three of the bandits who robbed the Gilmore City Exchange bank of $5,000 after holding H. S. Van Alstine, one of the owners, and his family prisoners overnight May 12 are the men who have been sentenced to prison for kidnapping W. B. Kinn, Idaho lieutenant governor, H. V. Yackey, state agent charged today.

Yackey said the men were identified by fingerprint records. They gave their names as August Becker, 28, of Sumner, Iowa, Donald Melvin, 21, and Roy Salmon, 21 both of Livermore, Iowa.

Yackey and Abe Dervaul, Pocahontas county attorney, began negotiations with Idaho officials in an effort to return the men to Iowa to stand trial for the bank robbery.

Decensed was a member of the fraternal order of Royal Neighbors, Maple Camp of Glasgow. She had been in failing health the past two years during which time she bravely tried to continue with her household duties until the past few months when she was compelled to seek medical aid in the hope of being restored to her former health. All that medical skill could do was placed at her disposal but all to no avail, and loving hands continued to minister with watchful care as they saw her gradual approach to the valley of the shadows. She was a woman of Christian thought, faithful and devoted in all things. Her life has been a quiet one, full of labor and love. She was conscious of the things worth while in life as she freely gave of her devotion to her home, her family, and her friends. It had fallen to her ministry to lend the hand of aid, and give voice of comfort when the sustaining touch of friendship soothed and allayed the one who was weary and heavy laden with affliction. She has kept the faith, she has finished her course, and has passed on into a greater unfoldment. She has departed from the midst of those who loved her, but the memory of a devoted wife, a loving mother and a true friend is a heritage that shall not pass.

She leaves in sad bereavement the following members of the immediate family: The husband five children—James Madison at home, and Charles Arthur, Milo Hobart, Albert Millard and Mrs. Edna Marie Anders, all of Winchester. Two sisters, Florence, at home, and Mrs. Cora Savage, of Pahrump, Oklahoma; two brothers, Cliffe and Clyde Lewis, of Glasgow, and six grandchildren. Two brothers, Charles and Cameron, preceded her in death several years ago. A host of friends are also sad to know of her passage from the scenes of life. Funeral services were held at the Glasgow Baptist church, Monday, June 17, at 2:30 p. m., with Rev. Edgar Ford of El Paso, Ill., officiating. Several beautiful vocal offerings were presented by the following quintet: Mesdames Kate Letze, Pearl Fundel and Louella Adams, and Messrs Fred Letze and H. C. McMullen with Miss Lola Coats at the piano. The many beautiful floral offerings were cared for by the following: Mesdames Charlice Claywell, Elma Cox, Elsie Smith, Myrtle McGlasson, and Ethel McLaughlin. Pallbearers were: Ray Claywell, Otis Smith, Muri Smith, Elmer Fannon, Russell McLaughlin and Millard McGlasson. Interment was in the Glasgow cemetery.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Condensed Report of Y. M. C. A. Activities for the year May 1, 1928, to May 1, 1929, as promoted from the "Y" office in the Self Apartment. Albert D. Hermann, General Secretary.

The first of May started the new fiscal year for the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. The past year has been a very busy one for your secretary. There have been activities for boys of the various schools and groups starting with the fifth grade, through High school, for college students and employed young men, and also for business and professional men.

One hundred and thirty-eight boys were members of the "Torch Club" of Junior High school. Sixty-three boys were members of the "Freshman Y Club" of the High school and 70 other boys were members of the regular Y. Club of J. H. S.

Twenty boys were members of the "First Ward Pioneers" meeting in the Congregational gymnasium, with Mr. Wm. Crabbe as leader. Fifty-one boys were enrolled as members of the "Model Airplane Club" directed by Russell Ludwig, Dr. P. H. S. manual training instructor. Other "Toby Clubs" meeting informally from time to time included the "Stamp Club" and the "Camera Club."

One hundred and thirty-two boys and leaders were delegates at the County Older Boys' Conference held here in April and promoted by the HI-Y Clubs. Twenty-eight young men were members of the Young Men's Club of the "Y," composed of college students and employed boys. One hundred and fifty business, professional and industrial men took part in the two Volley Ball Leagues which had 19 teams using the gymnasiums of the School for the Deaf, Illinois College and High School. Though not listed as a Y. M. C. A. activity, your secretary taught the Young Married Couples Class of the Christian Church Sunday School, which was started under his leadership and has now an enrollment of 36 couples—72 members. He also promoted and served as secretary of the Men's Fellowship Club of that church. Every two weeks, during most of the Fall and Winter, he visited the Home for the Aged, with a program of moving pictures. And of course he co-operated with many other local agencies in many ways.

Financially the Association is in good standing. Had the Community Fund Fiscal Year coincided with the Y. M. C. A. Fiscal Year, with their funds all paid in, we could report all bills paid and a slight balance.

ONE REASON

for buying HUPMOBILE is written in the sky . . .

...but the final, clinching, convincing reason for buying it NOW is written right here and it reads:

CASH SAVINGS
... UP TO $260

It was a great story of HUPMOBILE'S prowess when one of America's greatest aviators picked it for himself stating, "Even the airplanes to which we entrust our lives in the air do not excel HUPMOBILE'S advanced and proven engineering principles."

But that's only half the story.

Now you can own the same model HUPMOBILE that Chamberlin owns . . . pocket a sweet cash saving up to $260. All models of the Century Six and Century Eight are included.

HUPMOBILE
CENTURY SIX & EIGHT

Clarence D. Chamberlin, trans-Atlantic flyer. One of America's top flight aviators . . . and owner of a Century HUPMOBILE. When Chamberlin trades wings and the sky-ways for wheels and the high-ways, he drives a HUPMOBILE.

THE FLYING MILES
 STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KNICK

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The big grasshopper hopped along, and my, but his queer legs seemed strong. He bounced away up in the air, like a little spring. His hind legs were as big as him, and they kept him in jumping trim. If you have seen one, you know he's a funny looking thing.

The Tlimes ran as best they could. Of course their legs were not so good. They didn't spring up into space, but stayed right near the ground. "Ow, we'll be caught," one Tiny cried. "The hopper's almost by our side." The rest were really much too scared to even turn around.

"By jingoes, if he tries to bite," said Clowny, "we will start to fight. All right, if we might lick him if we battle him good and strong." And then the scarecrow smiled and said, "You Tynymites run right ahead. I'll teach this silly hopper that to scare you boys is wrong."

Just as Mister Scarecrow heard he was quite a bit of the fast, he heard the hopper hopped right over his head and soon left him behind. "Well, good me," the scarecrow cried. "I thought that trick would be tried. He had him off some other way I must find."

He tried, but gave it up at last. The grasshopper was much too fast. This time all the Tynymites were as they could be. "I can't run ther," Clowny said. "I'm going drop and mind my head." I was sure he had no ears at least, if he started to hear me.

So Clowny dropped, and very soon he heard a little buzzing tone. It was the hopper. Clowny thought, "My, I have no chance." Upon knees he tried to crawl away. I don't work at all. The hopper hopped right up and grabbed poor Clowny by the pants.

(Sooty rides the grasshopper next story.)

IMPROVEMENTS BOARD CONDUCTS HEARING ON SOUTH SIDE PROJECT

Assessments, Brook Right of Way are Discussed at
Tuesday Hearing

Unusual interest on the part of many property owners was manifested Tuesday afternoon when the local Board of Improvements conducted a public hearing at the city hall in regard to the South Side Sewer project. Central interest of the representatives of the south side sewer district reflected upon the cost of and the benefits of the new drainage system also upon the amount of land that would be required to facilitate improvements along the brook.

Inquiries were made as to the spreading of the assessments which the sewer project would incur. City Attorney Walter Bellotti replied that the assessments would be spread according to the benefits derived from the proposed project. He said that no figures had been prepared, but that the commissioners would be appointed by the county court to serve with the mayor of the city to take care of the matter of assessments. This committee will also determine the value of the property along the right-of-way of brook improvements.

Number of complaints were made that assessments resulting from the new drainage project would conflict or run concurrently with assessments now being met on present drainage systems. This matter was passed on to the commissioners who are to be named to make the assessments. Other complaints were made that the present drainage system in particular sections was efficient and satisfactory. Engineer H. L. Caldwell stated that the best sections of the present system would become inefficient in comparison with the amount of efficiency and satisfaction the improved drainage system would afford. He added that the burden the improved system would carry would be too great for the present system.

J. H. Bigger of South Main street spoke briefly in favor of the proposed plans stating that relief from the present situation in the south side district was the main objective. Others at the hearing stated that the brook was badly in need of attention and improvement.

L. F. Randall read a resolution of the board of improvements favoring the proposed improvements of the south side district and it was unanimously accepted by the members. Members of the board at the hearing Tuesday were: L. F. Randall, Walter Bellotti, H. L. Caldwell, and John Vasconcellos, who served as president of the board.

JACKSONVILLE YOUTHS AT SANGAMON MEET

Seventeen Jacksonville young men were initiated into membership of Louis Henry Clampt chapter, Order of DeMolay, in an impressive and largely attended ceremony Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. J. H. Springfield. Seventeen Springfield youths also received work in the order, and there was one candidate from Litchfield, making a total of 35 candidates.

The initiation and accompanying program was arranged in celebration of the third anniversary of Stephen A. Douglas chapter of Springfield. More than fifty members of the Jacksonville chapter and Masons went to Springfield and attended the initiation. The reception of the seventeen new members now places the membership of the Jacksonville chapter well above the hundred mark.

Jacksonville young men received into membership were: Abe Wehl, Stanley Ashby, Orville Chapman, Gordon Walker, Marvin Sann, Albert Carley, Wilbur DeFrate, John Updegraff, Burton Cannon, James Hubbs, Everett Bote, Elbridge Tiff, James Hadden, Marvin Beeley, Henry Arenz, Elmore Suter and Paul Bushnell.

A banquet was served to the DeMolays and visitors at 6:30 o'clock. The initiators, degrees were conferred by the Springfield chapter, and the DeMolay degree by the Jacksonville chapter.

The cast of the local team was: Orator—Boyle Moore, DeMolay—Roscoe Stormont, Master inquisitor—John Nicol, Senior inquisitor—George Smith, Guy AtVergne—Harold Babjohns, Godfrey DeGonyille—LeRoy Ashby, Hugues DePerdale—Fred Runkle, Lord Constable of France—Warren Smith.

Marshal—Wendell Keller, Senior guard—Wendell Ingoldsbey, Guards—Jack Roland, Walter Leake and Forest Crowder.

The work of the Jacksonville degree cast won many favorable comments for their excellent work, which was of a most impressive character.

Among the Masons of this city attending the ceremony and who furnished cars for DeMolays were: Fred Bennington, Ole Smith, and Vasconcellos, Carl Walker, John Sibert, Dr. Allan Biggs, Frank Muehlhausen, Clifford Sibert, Pryor Bossarte, Alfred Leake, "Dad" of the Jacksonville chapter; John Sibert, a member of the advisory board, and Harry Walker, dramatic director.

DISCIPLES TO MEET IN CITY THURSDAY

Prominent members of Disciples of Christ churches in the west central section of Illinois are to meet in Jacksonville Thursday to confer with Dr. Bert Wilson, former president of Evanston college who is now representing the trustees of the Disciples of Christ pension fund.

The Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of the Central Christian Church will preside at the meeting which has been called to formulate plans for organizing committees of church members to conduct the work of the pension movement in this part of Illinois.

A pension fund committee representing every Christian Church in Illinois is to be formed. The men who are meeting Thursday in Jacksonville have been designated as representatives of their home districts and will serve as chairmen and members of the district and county committees which are to assist congregational committees.

An initial reserve fund of at least $50,000 will be raised among members of the Disciples of Christ brotherhood to establish the pension system on an actuarial basis. Solicitations for this fund will begin late next fall or early in 1930.

JULY 4TH CELEBRATION PLANNED AT HOSPITAL AT COMMITTEE MEETING

Plans for the big annual Fourth of July celebration at the Jacksonville State Hospital were made Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the committee in charge of arrangements.

The celebration is arranged by employees and officials of the institution and is financed by funds raised during the year through various entertainments.

The celebration always attracts thousands of people to the grounds, and the program planned this year will be no exception to the rule.

Though the public is invited to enjoy the festivities and always takes full advantage of the invitation, the celebration is planned as entertainment for the 3,500 patients at the hospital. Plans this year include sports of various sorts, a baseball game, band music, vaudeville and a grand display of fireworks in the evening.

Several first class vaudeville attractions have already been booked and will be announced in a few days. A speaker of prominence will be on hand to deliver the annual Independence Day address.

The ex-service men's band, under the direction of Bernard Strongman, will play during the day, being stationed in the band stand on the grounds for a concert in the afternoon. Some attractions will be drawn from the talent at the institution for special numbers.

During the morning patients at the hospital will engage in many athletic games and contests. A baseball game will also be played by the patients and employees. In the afternoon citizens will have an opportunity to witness the impressive retirement ceremony at the hospital. Patients to the number of about 2,000, all uniformed, will take part in this demonstration.

Music will be furnished by the band from the band stand early in the afternoon, with speaking and special song numbers. This will be followed by the special vaudeville attractions. It is the custom for large numbers of people to spend the day on the grounds and enjoy a basket dinner at noon.

A platform for dancing will be erected, and music for the dance will be furnished by the state hospital orchestra. The main entertainment will be seen in the evening when a fireworks display will be staged. This event always draws immense crowds from the grounds and is witnessed by hundreds who sit in their cars on the outskirts of the crowd.

COMPLETE REMOVAL OF THOUSANDS OF BOOKS TO NEW I. C. LIBRARY

Old Library to be Remodeled for Use as Lecture and Class Room

Work of moving the approximately 20,000 books and several thousand magazines and manuscripts from the old Illinois College library in Jones Memorial Chapel to the new Tanner Memorial library on the campus has been completed after ten days.

The books were packed and carried on trucks across the campus by several students of the college. The difficult task of sorting and filing the numerous volumes was supervised by Miss Jessie Ricks, the college librarian. The work has been done so expertly by the students that the library is practically ready for immediate use.

Shelves and book cases in the old reading rooms are being removed, with some of the cases in better condition being purchased by small local libraries.

The old library and the periodical reading room is to be renovated during the summer and will be reconstructed into a large lecture room and a class room. Other changes in Jones Memorial include the erection of a second stairway to lead to an exit at the back of the building. Rooms in the second floor campus building occupied by offices of the president and secretary will be made suitable for class room use as soon as the executive staff can be removed to the new offices in the memorial library.

BAND CONCERT AT WHITE HALL TONIGHT

White Hall, Ill. June 26.—A concert by the Roodhouse Concert band will be given in Whitesides Park at 8 o'clock this evening. The concert will be given in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the people of White Hall.

The band is the only band in Greene county and is composed of thirty players. Musicians from Roodhouse, White Hall, Carrollton, Jacksonville, Patterson and Kane make up the concert organization. The band is under the leadership of George Perry.

News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fish of Cincinnati, Ohio and Miss Lela Benton of Nashville, Tenn. are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Baies at their home on Bridgeport street. Mr. Fish is operating traffic general agent for the B. & O. railroad.

Miss Mary Evans has left White Hall for Racine, Wis., where she will spend the remainder of the summer with her brother, Dr. T. Evans at his summer home.

Edward Evans who was formerly employed with the Burlington Pantagraph, is now reported to be associated with the editorial department of the Springfield Register.

Mr. E. H. Sheppard and son Edmond, who have been visiting at the home of T. N. Nelson at Christopher, Ill.

White Hall, June 25.—There is local pride and inspiration in the naming of Wade E. Haist as superintendent of the Burlington at Beardstown on July 1st. Haist was agent at White Hall in 1910. He was born and reared by R. F. Ballard on March 10 of that year. Haist then engaged in the mercantile business at Wrights in partnership with the late Clarence Mosler which he continued for a year and a half. He then returned to the service of the Burlington under Supt. P. Cummings, who had about the same time been transferred from Beardstown to Burlington. Haist was made yardmaster at West Burlington, then the agency at Albion, Iowa, followed in succession as freight inspector and then as trainmaster at Burlington, where he remained six years. For the past year he has been in the general offices in Chicago, training for appointment as superintendent, and his first appointment brings him to his old stamping grounds. He is a native of Table Grove, and has a number of brothers in the telegraph service of the Burlington. He started as a telegrapher and worked his way up in extra work over the division until being made agent at Wrights in 1907, which he retained a year. He then held the agency at Christopher two years before coming to White Hall, and it was there that he performed services that received the commendation of the then superintendent, P. Cummings, of Beardstown, who renewed his interest in Haist when the latter gave up his mercantile venture at Wrights and returned to the railroad service. His age is about 45 years.

Strong symptoms for a Fourth of July observance at White Hall developed Monday night in a meeting in the city hall, called for the purpose of considering a fish fry by the Boy Scouts. The proceedings showed deep interest in the Boy Scout movement, but there was adverse sentiment on the uncertainty of a fish fry as a means of raising funds for the proposed cabin. It was developed that the cabin can and will be financed without doubt, such being the attitude of Edward B. Giller, and the matter of site resolves into the location across the hard road at Gregory park and the C. B. Roodhouse grove in town. Peter J. Roodhouse will reopen negotiations with the latter on the basis of plans already considered with him by Scoutmaster Neece and R. B. Pearce. What will be done about the Fourth of July was practically settled when Peter J. Roodhouse offered ten dollars for a fireworks display at the city reservoir, others coming from the generous donations that indicated something worthwhile for that night. Further contributions can be made with Carl W. Dossel, and then the fireworks.

Paul Slegist, ceramic engineer for the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stone-ware Co., since January, 1928, has resigned, and will leave this week for Pittsburgh, Penn., as Ceramic engineer and chemist for a large concern. Mr. Slegist has brought about the introduction of a new class of ware at the White Hall works since coming here, and a line of novelties are now being produced that are just getting onto the market. He will have a successful year, no information being available as to where he will be. Slegist is a product of the ceramic department of the University of Illinois.
